

One of the things I remember about Dr. Tripp was how patient he was and how I didn't feel nervous to make a mistake around him. One time I was restraining a beagle for him, and the beagle was very wiggly and I couldn't seem to find a good hold. Dr. Tripp patiently and kindly showed me a different way to restrain the beagle, which was effective and also comfortable for the beagle. Dr. Tripp was an amazing veterinarian and teacher!